

Agency Readiness for Alternative Public Works Contracting

The concept: 1 hour webinar session

Training focused on key analysis for projects before deciding to submit application to Project Review Committee (PRC)

Format: Panel discussion with MRSC facilitator with PRC past and present members sharing ideas and good practices.

DRAFT Outline of information covered.

- I. Overview of what we mean by Alternative Public Works Contracting
- II. Who are the steps to utilize these alternative methods?
 1. Submit PRC application
 - (1) Describe PRC
 - (i) Introduce our panel & begin panel discussion
- III. Owner Readiness points:
 1. First time Owner-Talk to another owner-This is an important step
 - (1) Where to find owners
 - (a) Training
 - (b) CPARB
 - (c) PRC
 - (i) The PRC lists all projects that are approved for GC/CM and design-build
 - (i) They can get the contact information from the PRC application.
 2. What are risks or areas of consideration when considering an alternative public works option?
 - (1) Different risks or areas of consideration based on different alternative methods?
 3. Other readiness points (panel to provide)
 - IV. Best Practices when submitting a PRC application
 1. Key elements of application
 - V. Closing thoughts by panel
 - VI. Resources
 1. MRSC Alternative Delivery topic page

NEXT STEPS

- 1) Confirm this is heading in the right direction?
- 2) Confirm timing of session in MRSC training calendar.
- 3) Find out who from PRC will participate.
- 4) Plan out talking points for panel discussion.